

Neilom Foundation Social Impact Interns: Summer 2021

Name of Organization: _The Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (AG Bell)

Organization Mission: Working globally to ensure that people who are deaf and hard of hearing can hear and talk. We want all families to be informed and supported. Professionals to be appropriately qualified to teach and help children with hearing loss, public policy leaders to effectively address the needs of people with hearing loss, and communities to be empowered to help their neighbors with hearing loss succeed.

Is this a remote internship? Yes

Description of Project(s) Intern would be working on:

AG Bell is looking for interns who are interested in learning more about business, marketing, and nonprofit management by adding hands-on experience to your education. We'll help you get skills in how companies work nationally and internationally with real-time experience. Our interns participate in online research, web development, social media, and fundraising, event planning and business services. If you're majoring in history, business, international relations, marketing and communications, library science or even health sciences, AG Bell is a great place to see your work in action.

Description of the skills Intern ideally should have for this project:

We require that you have skills using MS Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook) as well as internet navigation and pay attention to detail. Good writing skills and the ability to suggest solutions to problems are also preferred, and we hope that you bring a sense of humor, desire to be a star and are willing to join in as a member of our team.

Time period of internship (start and end dates): _June – August 2021

of hours required per week: 20-30 Payment per hour: $15.00
